Dr. E. G. Winnie, dentist.
Office on Telegraph street, two doors west of Zehner's fruit store. Office hours from 1 p. m. to 7 p. m. *

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure a cold in less time than any other treatment. Its effect is to loosen the cold, render the mucus less tenacious and easier to expectorate, and cause its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs. It also opens the secretions, allays the fever, and restores the system to a natural and healthy condition.
Sold by G. C. Thaxter.

Mr. C. J. Smith, traveling sales-man for Belford, Clark & Co., Chicago, had the misfortune to sprain his wrist most severely. "I was suffering great pain," he says, "and my wrist was badly swollen; a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieved the pain and reduced the swelling in one night, and in consequence my work and business was not interrupted, for which I am very grateful. I can recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm from personal experience."
Sold by G. C. Thaxter.

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price?
No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

How Can Parents

allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say:
"Oh! its only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHE-RRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H.
Chedic, Druggist.

Givevich always was a lucky man. He was driving along yesterday and stopped in front of the Monarch. On the rim of his wheel and right under his hand, was a half dollar. The wheel, which was covered with mud, had picked up the coin and passed it up to him.

we will consider the subject of "Perfect Love"; and in the evening our theme will be "The Resurrectaught and received three theories will be considered—the Swedenbor-the same body laid in the grave will be answered. All are invited.

LIVINGSTON'S LIQUORS.—The early closing movement does not effect Livingston's wholesale establishment. The liquor sold there is not for the herd of vulgar carousers who sound the midnight wassail, but rather to be pressed guardedly in the sanctity of the sideboard, where the blinds are pulled down and the curtains drawn and the company is invited. The liquor (if not too liberally partaken of,) warms the inner cockles of the soul and permeates the heart with merriment and good cheer.

HAD HER THAT TIME.—A few evenings since a young lady of this city when the clock struck 12, looked archly at her caller and said:

"Oh George, did you hear that the Supreme Court had decided the early closing movement constitutional?"

"Is that so?" rejoined the youth.
"If so I concur." And he closed her in with both arms.

She said he could remain another hour.

EASTER MUSIC.—The following music will be rendered at the Episcopal Church to-morrow Easter Sunday morning: "Christ the Lord is Risen to-day," Dudley Buck; "Christ our Passover," U. C. Durnap; "Te Deum," Alzamora; "Benedictus," Hymn; Offertory "O Saviour Hear Me," Dudley Buck; "Sanctus," Scrutton, Peter Vogel. Ladies List:

REGISTER.—Parties who have made a careful examination of the Register list, say that the Democrats are largely in the majority and have a nice little game fixed up to capture the Board of City Trustees, that they may handle the sewerage funds. Let every Republican register and see that the scheme doesn't work.

FUNERAL OF G. RAFFETTO.—The funeral of G. Raffetto, took place yesterday afternoon from the Catholic church. It was very largely attended and the line of carriages was nearly half a mile long.

annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Cemetery water works, April 13th 1889 it was.

Resolved, That all persons wishing water for irrigation, the present season, will be required to

One of Jones' Good Stories.

Senator Jones tells the following good story, which, beside being good, has its value doubled by the clever applications.

Senator Farwell of Illinois says that Senator Jones of Nevada was recently talking to a Democrat, who explained that if President Cleveland had not written that tariff message the Democrats would have elected him. "Yes," said the Nevada Senator, "I remember once an old man was found dead in San Francisco and taken to the Morgue, where a young man claimed the body as that of his father, and ordered an undertaker to give it respectable burial. When the body had been bestowed in the coffin the young man took a last look and discovered that the lower jaw had fallen, exposing a set of false teeth.

"Here," said the young man to undertaker, 'this is not my father; 'he had no false teeth,' and, refusing to pay for the coffin, walked away.

"The undertaker, with dissapointment written all over his face, seized the body, yanked it out of the casket and slapped it down on the slab, saying to it:

"There you plaguey fool, you!
If you'd a kep' yer mouth shut yer might a' had a first-class funeral."
